

EVCO RECRUITING LAUNCHES BIGGREENBOARD.COM AND SMART SEEK

Calabasas, CA- EVCO Recruiting, a leading provider of recruitment services to the Renewable Energy industry, is proud to announce the launch of BigGreenBoard.com and Smart Seek.

Evan Cohen, EVCO Recruiting President emphasized "With the release of BigGreenBoard.com and Smart Seek, we are capturing the broadest mix of professionals within the Renewable Energy industry to ensure better hires in a shorter amount of time."

More than just a job board, BigGreenBoard.com is a Renewable Energy industry specific candidate database, interactive knowledge center and networking platform offered to EVCO clients, candidates and partners.

Smart Seek is a web based process that identifies qualified industry professionals and invites them to apply for career opportunities posted on BigGreenBoard.com.

"Companies in the Renewable Energy industry are allocating more of their resources, time and attention to developing workforce strategies and delivering on their core business objectives. By shifting their focus, and utilizing our services, our clients have found they are gaining a competitive recruiting advantage," states Evan Cohen.
